

Corporate Bylaws

These are the bylaws of _____, a _____ corporation.

Article I: Meetings of Shareholders

1. The annual meeting of shareholders will be held on the _____. The annual meeting of shareholders will begin at _____ and will take place at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.
2. At the annual meeting, the shareholders will elect a Board of Directors and may take any other shareholder action permitted by state law.
3. A special meeting of the shareholders may be called at any time if:
 - (i) [] the corporation has distributed or proposed to distribute to its shareholders cash dividends in an amount equal to or greater than _____;
 - (ii) [] _____ or more shareholders have requested a special meeting; or
 - (iii) [] _____ or more shareholders have requested a special meeting for the purpose of voting on a proposal which can be taken at a special meeting except as provided in the bylaws or otherwise by state law.
4. At least 15 days before an annual or special meeting, the secretary will send a notice of the meeting to each shareholder. The notice must be sent by first-class mail and must state the time and place of the meeting. For a special meeting, the notice must also include the purpose of the meeting. Notice can be taken at a special meeting except as provided in the bylaws or otherwise by state law.
5. Shareholders may attend a meeting either in person or by proxy. A quorum of shareholders at any "shareholder" meeting will consist of the owners of a majority of the shares constituting the corporation. If a quorum is present, the shareholders may adjourn from day to day as they see fit, unless notice of such adjournment need be given. If a quorum is not present, the shareholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as they agree upon; notice of such adjournment must be mailed to each shareholder at least 15 days before such adjourned meeting.
6. Each shareholder, whether represented in person or by proxy, is entitled to one vote for each share of stock standing in his or her name on the books of the company.

7. Proxies must be in writing.

8. All shareholders' actions require the assent of a majority of the corporate shares that have been issued, but if state law requires a greater number of votes, that law will prevail.

(e) Exception: _____ require the assent of _____ of the corporate shares that have been issued.

9. Shareholders may, by written consent, take any action required to be taken at an annual or special meeting of shareholders. Such action may be taken without prior notice to shareholders. The written consent must:

- state the action taken; and
- be signed and dated by the owners of shares having at least the number of votes that would be needed to take such action at a meeting.

If the written consent is not signed by all shareholders, the corporation will within three days send a copy of the written consent to each shareholder who did not sign it.

Article III. Stock

1. Stock certificates must be issued by the manager and secretary of the corporation.

2. The name of each owner of shares issued by a stock certificate, the number of shares owned, and the date of issue will be entered in the corporation's books.

3. All documents required by state law must be considered for consideration. No documents will be issued to the purchaser or assignee.

4. Shares of stock can be issued only on the books of the corporation and only by the secretary.

Article IV. Board of Directors

1. The board of directors will manage the business of the corporation and will exercise all the powers that may be exercised by the corporation under the statutes of the State of _____, the articles of incorporation, or the corporate bylaws.

2. A vacancy on the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or other cause may be filled by the remaining directors, or the board may leave the position unfilled, in which case it will be filled by a vote of the shareholders at a special meeting or at the next annual meeting. During periods when there is an unfilled vacancy on the board of directors, actions taken by the remaining directors will constitute actions of the board.

3. The board of directors will meet annually, immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders. The board of directors may also hold other regular meetings, at times and places to be fixed by unanimous agreement of the board. At annual or regular meetings, the board may take any action allowed by law or these bylaws.

Special meetings may be called by:

- [] the president
- [] any director
- [] _____ or more directors

by giving _____ days' written notice to all directors.

A notice of a special meeting shall be given by the召集人 who must state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. No fewer than three days' notice of a special meeting of directors except an emergency or the death, removal, or disqualification of a director.

- 4. A quorum for a meeting will consist of _____ directors.
 - 5. Directors will act only by written consent.
 - [] consent in writing of the directors.
 - [] the approval of a majority of those directors present.
 - [] the approval of at least _____ directors.
6. The directors will not be compensated for serving as such. A director may, however, serve in other capacity with the corporation and receive compensation for such service.
7. Directors may, by written consent, take any action required or permitted to be taken at a directors' meeting. Such action may be taken without prior notice to the directors. The written consent must:
- [] state the action taken, and

- Be signed and dated by at least the number of directors whose votes would be needed to take such action at a meeting.

If the written consent is not signed by all directors, the secretary will within three days send a copy of the written consent to the directors who did not sign it.

8. Directors may meet or participate in meetings by telephone or other electronic means so long as all directors are continuously able to communicate with one another.

Article IV: Officers

1. The officers of the corporation will consist of a

- president
- vice-president
- secretary
- treasurer
- controller

and such other officers as the board of directors may designate.

2. The president will preside at all meetings of the directors and shareholders, and will have general charge of the business of the corporation, subject to approval of the board of directors.

3. In case of the death, disqualification or absence of the president, the [] shall exercise his/her powers and general control and be vested with all the duties and powers of the president.

4. The secretary will keep the corporate records, including minutes of shareholders' and directors' meetings and agent resolutions. The secretary will give notice, as required in these bylaws, of shareholders' and directors' meetings.

5. The treasurer will keep account of all money of the corporation received or disbursed, and will deposit all money and valuables in the name of the corporation in the banks and depositories that the directors designate. Checks against company accounts will be signed as directed by the board of directors.

6. The salaries of all officers will be fixed by the Board of Directors and may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Article V: Fiscal

1. The books of the corporation will be closed at a date to be selected by the Directors prior to the filing of the first income tax return due from the corporation. The books will be kept on:

[] a cash basis.

[] an accrual basis.

2. Within 75 days after the corporation's fiscal year ends, the Director will provide each shareholder with a financial statement for the corporation.

Article VI: Amendments

Any of these Bylaws may be amended or repealed by a vote of the owners of a majority of the shares outstanding at any annual meeting or any extraordinary meeting called for that purpose.
